Bacciardi Partners has assisted UK based company Bedford Consultancy Services Ltd (“BEDFORD CONSULTING”) in the contractualisation, within their newly established Italian branch, of human resources hired to provide customer and relation services to its EMEA clients.

BEDFORD CONSULTING is an EMEA wide company supported by the Keensight Capital, with offices in the UK, Germany, Sweden and Italy. Bedford Consulting enables businesses to connect their planning processes to make better, faster and more agile decisions and accelerate performance using cloud-based planning platform, Anaplan. BEDFORD CONSULTING is a Gold Anaplan Partner and has been awarded Anaplan EMEA Partner of the Year for the last seven years. BEDFORD CONSULTING having successfully implemented more than 600 projects for over 300 clients.

Bacciardi Partners provided assistance with respect to all administrative, labor, tax, social security and welfare activities and formalities necessary for the recruitment of employees in compliance with applicable national and supranational regulations.

BEDFORD CONSULTING requested to apply full remote working capability for employees hired in Italy. Therefore, Bacciardi Partners conformed, on the basis of current applicable Italian law and practice, an employment contract suitable to allow the application of the employees in full remote smart working mode.

Bacciardi Partners acted with a team composed by partner Pier Federico Orciari (Picture) and junior associate Rebecca Milandri, with the contribution of Michele Sacchi as of counsel for labor law issues.
